Instructions for controlling person form

Part 1: Definition of a controlling person under FATCA and CRS

- A. The term "Controlling Person" (under CRS and FATCA) is equivalent to the definition of "Beneficial Owner" under AML/KYC. The controlling person/beneficial owner is the natural person/-s who exercise control over an entity. For an Entity that is a legal person, control over an Entity is generally exercised by the natural person(s) who ultimately has a controlling ownership interest in the Entity. A controlling ownership interest depends on the ownership structure of the legal person and may be identified on the basis of a threshold (normally more than 25 percent ownership including indirect ownership). Where no natural person(s) exercises control through ownership interests, the Controlling Person(s) of the Entity will be the natural person(s) who exercises control of the Entity through other means (e.g. the right to appoint or remove senior management).

Where no natural person(s) is identified as exercising control of the Entity, the Controlling Person(s) of the Entity will be the natural person(s) who holds the position of senior managing official (e.g. CEO or Chairman of the Board, etc). In relation to foundations, and in addition to the above, also a person representing a legal person that is engaged to manage the foundation and a person that may receive a substantial part of the assets that the foundations distribute (normally more than 15 percent), may be seen as controlling persons of the foundation.

In the case of a trust, the term Controlling Persons means the settlor(s), the trustee(s), the protector(s) (if any), the beneficiary(ies) or class(es) of beneficiaries, and any other natural person(s) exercising ultimate effective control over the trust. The settlor(s), the trustee(s), the protector(s) (if any), and the beneficiary(ies) or class(es) of beneficiaries, are seen as Controlling Persons of a trust, regardless of whether any of them exercises control over the trust. In the case of a legal arrangement other than a trust, Controlling Person(s) means persons in equivalent or similar positions.

- B. Controlling persons are generally U.S. tax resident if they:
- are a U.S. citizen including individuals with dual citizenships,
 - are a U.S. resident,
 - hold a U.S. residence permit or U.S. work permit (Green Card), or
 - were born in the U.S.

- C. Controlling person's tax residence in other countries:

You can be a tax resident in more than one country depending on the country's laws and regulations. In general, the tax residence is the country where you have permanent residence or whereabouts. However, each country has its own set of rules for determining tax residence. If you pay taxes due to assets in another country e.g. property tax or withholding tax from yields on securities, you are generally not considered being a tax resident in that country. For more information about tax residence rules in a certain jurisdiction, please visit the OECD Automatic Exchange Portal at: <http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-residency/>

- D. Controlling person's taxpayer identification number (TIN):

- In the U.S. your TIN is your U.S. Social Security Number. In some cases, a functional equivalent is issued.
- In Norway your TIN is your Norwegian national identity number or D-number.
- In other countries, the structure of TINs or their functional equivalent varies but is typically a national identification number, national identity number or national insurance number.

Further information on jurisdiction-specific TIN formats can be found on OECD's webpage at: <http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-identification-numbers/#d.en.347759>

Part 2: Legal background

- A. Common Reporting Standard (CRS)

CRS was prepared by the OECD and is a global standard for the automatic transfer of financial account information with the purpose of preventing tax evasion. According to the CRS Financial Institutions are required to identify individuals and entities with foreign tax residencies and report this information to the Norwegian tax authorities. This means that if the customer has tax residence in any other country than Norway, Nordea is legally required to share the information stated in this form, and then file annual reports regarding the customer's account and products to the Norwegian tax authorities. In turn, the Norwegian tax authorities will transfer the information to the relevant CRS participating jurisdictions. For further information on CRS please access the following website: <http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/about-automatic-exchange/>

In Norwegian legislation, the regulations that apply to CRS are included in the Tax Administration Act (L27.95.2016 no. 14) and the Tax Administration Regulations § 7-3 (F23.11.2016 no 13601704/2015, 226/2016).

- B. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

FATCA is a tax treaty which Norway and the U.S., among other countries, have signed with the purpose of preventing tax evasion. It imposes the following legal requirements:

1. Financial institutions are required to identify financial products held by U.S. persons
2. Financial institutions are required to provide the Tax Administration information on the identified financial products and U.S. customers
3. The Tax Administration is then required to convey the information to the U.S. tax authorities.

In Norwegian legislation, the rules that apply to FATCA are included in the Tax Administration Act (L27.95.2016 no. 14) and the Tax Administration Regulations § 7-3 (F23.11.2016 no. 1360).
